and other facilities are not available and the host University will extend all necessary facilities and expertise to the research students on payment of charges as prescribed by the Institution providing the facility or as agreed upon mutually on case to case basis.

3. Collaborative research programmes by the Faculty of both Universities following the common research mandates of both the Institutions may be developed and cooperate in the exchange of Faculty and researchers to encourage sharing of experience, scientific knowledge, and technology advances.
4. The Faculty of BU and RGPV may apply for joint collaborative research projects to National and International funding agencies (Public/Private). Data generated through such collaborative research will be published in peer reviewed journals jointly by the Faculty of both the Institutions.
5. In the existing and likely Intellectual Property regime, techniques technologies, materials etc. developed/perfected of any immediate or likely commercial value would be the joint property of both Universities and the Intellectual property claims/formalities would be filed/made jointly.
6. All research materials used in the collaboration will be transferred using Material Transfer Agreements (MTAs). Further, the transfer of biological material, including breeding materials and germplasm, will be subject to pertinent biosafety and bioprospecting laws, rules, and regulations. Either party may use such materials, but will give full credit to the source of the materials. Results of the collaborative research will be jointly published in the public interest as mutually agreed upon.
7. The MoU will be effective for a period of 5 years from the date of signature, which may be further extended for another 5 (Five) years.
8. This Memorandum of Understanding reflects the respective Institution's commitments to terms and conditions mentioned in MoU. This memorandum of understanding may be amended or terminated at any time by either party provided that notice of termination or amendment is given by the notifying party to the other party before thirty (30) days of the date on which the
